Next Meeting-Tuesday, January 8, Speaker: Steve Radack, Commissioner Harris County Precinct 3

Our first meeting of 2008 features Steve Radack as our speaker. Steve Radack has been the elected Commissioner of Precinct Three since 1988. Commissioner Radack has pushed for greater efficiency at all levels of local government by supporting programs aimed at promoting the intelligent use of taxpayer dollars. He has also emphasized privatization throughout county government and been an outspoken advocate of meeting the personnel and equipment needs of law enforcement agencies.

Precinct Three encompasses 464 square miles and has more than 900,000 residents. It is one of the fastest growing and most diverse areas in the region, containing both large segments of rural agricultural land and densely populated pockets of urban growth. Steve Radack has worked to keep pace with that growth by continually improving Precinct Three's infrastructure and participating in regional transportation initiatives aimed at bettering mobility. He has also focused on enhancing the quality of life in Precinct Three through the aggressive development of parks, an environmentally-friendly network of hike and bike trails and programs for senior citizens.

The meeting begins with a social at 6:30, followed by a dinner of Meat Loaf, Scalloped Potatoes, Green Beans & Dessert at 7:15. After the dinner we will have a brief business meeting, followed by comments by Commissioner Radack. The event cost is $7, no reservations necessary.
